

Dear Boss

I am not asking for a salary rise or an extra day off for my cousins' wedding. This letter is sent to you because I am thinking about a much nobler cause: Get the company involved in tree planting!

As my dear boss and as a person always having the big picture in mind, I am sure that you will love to get the opportunity to plant trees and to help grow a forest in one of the poorest regions on the planet. As a company we can generate a positive impact by getting involved into fighting desertification and poverty. So this year don't waste too much time on my performance report and let's start our planting experience.

The people at Tree-Nation make it easy and simple to plant. Just have a look at what they can do for us.

Thank you dear Boss!
